THE OPERA at CASTLE GARDEN.—

MANAGER'S CARD.

In announcing the commencement of the summer and winter seasons of the Italian Opers in this city many will perhaps be disposed to charge the management with temerity, and the charge, under certain circumstances, might be not altogether unfounded. In making another effort to give the Italian Opers in this city, and to enable the New York public to enjoy the highest and most refined luxury known to civiluation, the management have allowed no difficulties to be insurmountable, however great, not has it been deterred by any expense, however large, as it has felt and now feels firmly convined that the always region indicates it is friends and the public generally which has heretofore been extended to it, will not be withheld, and that the already cultivated and still growing teste for miste as a high art in this country fully warrants any labor or expense that may be called into requisition in trying once more to give the opera a local habitation smorn us.

With these views, during a late visit to Europe, the management has selected from anyong the choicest artists the following list, which it is respectfully a whitted is not only the strongest company in point of numbers, hat entirely beyond all comparison as regards talent, that has ever been gathered together either in this country or in Europe:

Prima Donna Assolute:

Signora G. BRAMBILLA (La Scala, Milan.)

Donna Valerrei (CMEZ, (Teatre Real, Madrid.)

Sigra A. ARYOLANI, (Teatre Penice, Venice.)

Miller (Penice, Venice.)

Prime Donna Contrealte: Sigra. MARTINI D'ORMY, (Vienna.)

Premiere Danseuse: Sigra. ROSA MARRA. (Milan.)

Primi Tenori: Sigr. G. GALVANI, (Le Scale, Milan.) Sigr. NRRI BERALDI, (Italian Opera, Paris.) Sigr. MAZZOLENI, Teatro Grande, Tric

Primi Baritoni: Sigr. GRAZIANI (Italian Opera, Paria.) Sigr. GIRAL DOMI, (Teatro Real, Turin.) Sigr. ANDRAGI, (Vienna.)

Primi Bassi: Sigr. MARINI Sigr. COLLETTI Sigr. ORTOLANI.

Maestro-Mr. ROBERT STOEPEL, (London.)

The following artists will have the houst of opening CASTLE GARDEN is the course of next week:

Denna VALEERI GOMEZ.

Sign. MARTINI D'ORMY.

Sign. GRAZIANI.

Particulars will be autounced in future advertisements.

The various artists of the company will appear in rapid succession during the season, so that the public will enjoy a continual series of nevelties.

In the selection of the Orchestra and Chorus the management has varied itself of the best talent in both departments that could possibly be obtained, and the public may rest assured that every Opera will be given in a rivie, both as regards the missic and all accessories, worthy of the advanced nucleal education of the public and the repulsion of the management on former occasions.

In short, it is determined that nothing shall be wanting on the part of the management or graifly the public, and at least deserve success, of the management or graifly the public, and at least deserve success, of the management or graifly the public, and at least deserve success.

TO SHIP MASTERS.—The Board of Underwriters have noticed with concern and rearet the frequent practice of a tiling fire to vessels when about to be abandoned at sea, by which all chance of subsequent salvage by other vessels is precluded.

The ostensible reason for this practice is that an abandoned ship footing upon the ocean may occasion the loss of others by occilion; but it is to be feared that the object is sumetimes to prevent the vessel from being falled in with and saved, and thus prove the want of skill and courses in lense who abandoned her.

The Underwriters have not hitherto held the assured responsible for the destruction of property is this manner, and it is hoped that a discontinuance of the practice will render farther action on their part unnecessary. nnecessary.
